Professional Development at Amrop

Through Amrop University, Amrop commits to the continuous learning of its Partners, Consultants and Research Associates, developing the knowledge, skills and behaviors that bring distinctive value to agile, connected and forward-looking client organizations.

Amrop University blends practical business knowledge and service-oriented education. A wide range of topics, course formats and opportunities for exchange is tailored to meet the needs of our global teams.

Delivered through a range of methodologies, from online workshops and cross-border mentoring, to multi-day onsite global learning events, Amrop University programs are led by world-class content experts.

Amrop University at IMD

In close collaboration with IMD (the Institute for Management Development), Amrop offers its consultants and partners worldwide an exclusive Executive Development program: The Trusted Advisor.

Under the banner 'Amrop University at IMD', the multi-module program runs over a series of three-day sessions at the IMD campus on the shores of Lake Geneva in Lausanne, Switzerland.

Through professor-led lectures and workshops, the program addresses shifts in the global economic environment, the evolving organization and implications for leadership and executive search. It achieves consistently high participant ratings.

Amrop's Chairman, Ulrich Dade: "All our Amrop University programs are designed to support broad professional development, at all levels of the organization. The Trusted Advisor program at IMD reinforces our ability to offer sustainable and relevant solutions to our clients. Our partnership with IMD underscores Amrop's drive towards excellence as a premium, global executive search provider."

IMD Program Director Professor Maury Peiperl: "IMD's partnership with Amrop is based on close collaboration and transparency – exactly the kind of trust-building that professional services firms need to develop with their own high-level clients. Each of us pushes the other to higher and higher capabilities, making it a real pleasure and a great learning experience all around."

Membership of the World Economic Forum - Community of Global Growth Companies

As a learning organization, Amrop is a member of the World Economic Forum's Community of Global Growth Companies (GGC) formed in 2007 to engage dynamic, high-growth organizations considered as having the potential to be tomorrow's industry leaders and to become a driving force of economic and social change.

GGC members interact with each other and with leaders of government, civil society and the media via international live forums and the World Economic Forum's online platform. Agendas cover major socio-economic factors and shifts and drivers for competitiveness and innovation.

About the World Economic Forum

The World Economic Forum is an independent international organization committed to 'improving the state of the world' by engaging business, political, academic and other leaders of society to shape global, regional and industry agendas. Incorporated as a not-for-profit foundation in 1971 and headquartered in Geneva, Switzerland, the Forum is tied to no political, partisan or national industries. Its activities are built on 4 pillars: communities, interaction, insight and impact.
